

Web links - Statistical Information

The links listed below can be copied and pasted into your web page Address Bar.

Bass Coast Shire Council
Community profile provides data about the people in our Shire and how they live.	These site are located on the Bass Coast Shire Council website under Community Profile and Statistics http://www.basscoast.vic.gov.au/Community/Community_Profile.aspx
Forecast id Bass Coast population and household forecasts are designed to inform community groups, Council, investors, business, students and the general public
Community Atlas provides interactive maps to compliment the information that we have in our community profile. A range of maps are available, including maps on population, ethnicity, education, household type, labour force, how people travel to work, housing tenure and cost, and computer use.
Department of Sustainability and Environment
From this page you can access all of Victoria's planning schemes ordinance (text) and maps.	http://www.dse.vic.gov.au/planningschemes/
Australian Bureau of Statistics
AusStats is a web-based information service of the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS). AusStats allows you to conveniently access a large range of ABS statistical and reference information, much of it free of charge.	http://www.abs.gov.au/websitedbs/c311215.nsf/All+documents+by+Title/People+@+a+Glance
The 'Good Move' Campaign
The Good Move campaign showcases Victoria's regions so individuals, families and businesses can explore everything they need to make their own move to country Victoria	http://www.goodmove.vic.gov.au/
Department of Planning & Community Development
The Spatial Analysis & Research branch of the Department of Planning & Community Development conducts research across a range of topics, including population, housing, land development and employment.	http://www.dpcd.vic.gov.au/home/publications-and-research/urban-and-regional-research