

Business Grants

Where to apply for them

BusiGrants – produced by Our Community

<http://www.busigrants.com.au>

Each year Federal, State and Local Governments give away hundreds of millions of dollars to support thousands of businesses across Australia. Is your business one of them?

Now you can stay up to date with all business funding opportunities by subscribing to BusiGrants, Australia's first monthly newsletter providing details on all the available business grants (money to build your business), scholarships and professional industry awards. If there is a grants program directing money towards new or existing businesses, you'll know about it.

State Government assistance

Business Victoria – Finance, Grants and Assistance

<http://www.business.vic.gov.au/grants-and-assistance>

To start and run a successful business you need a range of resources, from finance to information. You may own a building, but you need money to buy equipment. You may have venture capital arranged, but you need information on markets and export. In this section, you can find out about raising and managing finance, discover what banks offer, and look at alternative ways of raising finance. You can also find out about education, training and other forms of assistance to help you grow and evolve your business.

Federal Government assistance

Assistance for business

<http://www.ausindustry.gov.au/programs/Pages/programs.aspx>

AusIndustry, the Australian Government's business unit within the Department of Industry, Innovation, Science, Research and Tertiary Education provides business assistance to support innovation, investment and international competitiveness.

GrantsLINK

<http://grants.myregion.gov.au/grant-categories/business-and-industry>

GrantsLINK makes it easier to find suitable grants from the many government grants that are available. It also helps you find the best source of funding and assists you to complete application forms. Page lists both business and industry grants

Grants and Financial Assistance

<http://www.business.gov.au/business/topics/grantsandassistance/Pages/default.aspx>

Grants and other funding programs are available from the Australian, state and territory governments, and in some cases from local councils. Generally there are few grants available for starting a business, and those that are available are competitive or are only available for specific circumstances. However, there are grants and other assistance available for activities such as expanding your business, research and development, innovation and exporting